

Information on
The 1st Session of the General Assembly of FASPPED

Jakarta, 6 to 7 July 2010

Forum of Asia Pacific Parliamentarians for Education (FASPPED) was established as the result of the Parliamentary Conference for Education in the Asia Pacific Region which took place in Jakarta on 24 October to 25 October 2010 and unanimously appointed the Speaker of the Indonesian House of Representatives as President of the forum.

Now, we are pleased to announce that Indonesia will host the 1st Session of the General Assembly of FASPPED which will be held in Sultan Hotel, Jakarta, from 6 to 7 July 2010.

Regarding to the said event, every National Parliaments in Asia and the Pacific are invited and expected to send a delegation consist of 2 (two) Members of Parliaments from parliamentary committee with responsibility for education, or parliamentarians who have great concern on education matters.

Indonesia, as the host country, will cover the accommodation of 2 (two) Members of Parliament of each Respective Parliaments in Asia Pacific region, as well as their local transportation. The 1st Session of the General Assembly of FASPPED will be inaugurated by the President of the Republic of Indonesia.

The host country will send the invitation enclosed with general information, registration form, arrival and departure form, hotel reservation for additional participants, and luggage tags in the first week of May.

Related documents on the matter will be available at www.faspped.com and www.dpr.go.id in the first week of June.